

Sinclair Broadcasting's efforts to smear John Kerry go far beyond negative advertising. The content and timing of their "Stolen Honor" program, and their intent to force local stations to broadcast it are dirty tricks.

As a very large information provider using the public airwaves, Sinclair Broadcasting Group should not be allowed to abuse their responsibility to U.S. citizens. Their "Stolen Honor" ploy is unethical and an affront to democracy. Their attempt to bias this election is part of their ongoing efforts to grow and further consolidate their power.

Sinclair's actions prove why corporate media giants need stricter oversight and why media ownership rules need strong enforcement. Please take action to restrain this arrogant corporation.
